Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act for orders as follows:

- A monetary order pursuant to Section 67;
- An order of possession to the landlord pursuant to Section 55;
- An order to recover the cost of filing the Application for Arbitration pursuant to Section 72.

Issues to be decided

- Is the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession based on the Ten Day Notice to End Tenancy for unpaid rent?
- Is the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation against the tenant for rent and to recover the filing fee for this application?

Background and Evidence

I find that the Notice to End Tenancy dated August 05, 2008 was served on the Tenant on August 05, 2008 by way of personal service and the Application for Arbitration dated August 20, 2008 was served on the tenant on August 22, 2008 by registered mail. Despite having been served with the Notice of Arbitration, the tenant did not appear.

The landlord was given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions. On the basis of the solemnly affirmed evidence presented at the hearing, a decision has been reached.

The landlord testified that the tenancy started on March 01, 2007 and the tenant paid a security deposit in the amount of $500. The monthly rent is $1000.00 due on the first of the month. The tenants paid part rent for August and failed to pay rent for September. The tenant moved out on September 05, 2008 and the landlord is claiming the following:

- $ 650.00 Balance of rent for August
- $1000.00 Loss of income for September
- $50.00 The fee for filing this application
- An order of possession effective two days after serving it on the tenant.

Analysis

Based on the undisputed testimony of the Landlord, I accept her affirmed evidence in respect of the claim. I find that the landlord is entitled to the balance of rent for August and loss of income for September, as the tenant moved out without notice on September 05, 2008. The landlord is also entitled to the cost of filing this application. I also order that the landlord retain the deposit and interest of $ 511.68 in partial satisfaction of the claim. I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance of $ 1158.32. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order for Possession. There is outstanding rent. The Tenant has not made application pursuant to Section 46 to set aside the Notice to End a Residential Tenancy and the time to do so has expired. In these situations, the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the tenant has been deemed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the date set out in the Notice. Pursuant to section 55(2) I am issuing a formal order of possession effective two days after service. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

Conclusion

I will issue the landlord the following orders:

- A monetary order in the amount of $ 1158.32
- An order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant.
