Decision

Dispute Codes: OPB OPC FF

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession. Despite having been served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing by registered mail on November 13, 2008, the tenant did not participate in the conference call hearing.

The tenancy began on February 1, 2008. On October 23, the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy for cause.

Based on the landlord's testimony, I find that the tenant was served with a notice to end tenancy for cause. The tenant has not applied for dispute resolution to dispute the notice and is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice. Based on the above facts, I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession. The tenant must be served with the order of possession. Should the tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee. I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $50.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.
