Introduction

This hearing was in response to an Application for Dispute Resolution, in which the Tenant applied for the return of double his security deposit and to recover the filing fee from the Landlord for the cost of filing this application.

Both parties were represented at the hearing. They were provided with the opportunity to submit documentary evidence prior to this hearing, all of which has been reviewed, to present relevant oral evidence, to ask relevant questions, and to make relevant submissions.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issue to be decided is whether the Tenant is entitled to the return of double the security deposit paid in relation to this tenancy and to recover the cost of filing this Application for Dispute Resolution.

Background and Evidence

The Landlord and the Tenant agreed that this tenancy ended on September 31, 2008; that the Tenant paid a security deposit of $850.00 on September 01, 2006; that the Tenant provided the Landlord with his forwarding address, in writing, on October 08, 2008; that the Tenant did not authorize the Landlord to retain the security deposit; that the Landlord did not return the security deposit; and that the Landlord did not file an Application for Dispute Resolution claiming against the security deposit.

During the hearing the Landlord and the Tenant indicated that they wished to reach a mediated agreement to this dispute. The Landlord and the Tenant agreed to settle this dispute by having the Landlord send a certified cheque for $1,500.00 to the Tenant.

In reaching this settlement the Tenant recognizes that he is forfeiting his right to the return of double the damage deposit, pursuant to section 38(6) of the Act. In reaching this settlement the Landlord agreed that he will not be seeking to recover damages to the rental unit that allegedly occurred during the course of this tenancy, or to recover any expenses that he incurred in relation to this tenancy. The Landlord and the Tenant agree that neither party will file an Application for Dispute Resolution for any other matters relating to this tenancy.

Conclusion

On the basis of the agreement reached by the two parties I am issuing a monetary Order which requires the Landlord to pay the Tenant $1,500.00. In the event that the Landlord does not voluntarily comply with this Order, it may be filed with the Province of British Columbia Small Claims Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.
