DIRECT REQUEST DECISION

Dispute Codes

OPR, MNR, MNSD, FF

Introduction

The Hearing proceeded by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 74(2)(b) of the Act, and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession and a monetary order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on May 11, 2009, the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail. The applicant provided a receipt to confirm service by registered mail. Section 90 of the Residential Tenancy Act determines that a document is deemed to have been served in 5 days when sent by registered mail.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find the tenant has been duly served with the Dispute Resolution Direct Request Proceeding documents.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be decided are whether the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent; to a monetary Order for rental arrears, to retain the security deposit from the tenant and reimbursement for the cost of the Application for Dispute Resolution, pursuant to sections 38, 55, 67, and 72 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act). I have reviewed all documentary evidence.

Proof of Service of 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy

The landlord submitted a copy of the Application for Dispute Resolution and a "Proof of Service" form stating that the Ten-Day Notice to End Tenancy, was served in person to the tenant at 12:30 p.m. on May 2, 2009.

The purpose of serving documents under the Act is to notify the person being served of their failure to comply with the Act and of their rights under the Act in response. The landlord is seeking to end the tenancy due to this breach and the landlord has the burden of proving that the tenant was served with the 10 day Notice to End Tenancy. I find that the tenant was properly served with the Ten-Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent.

Background and Evidence

The tenancy agreement submitted into evidence indicates that the month-to-month tenancy began on September 8, 2008 with rent set at $820.00. A security deposit of $410.00 and a pet damage deposit of $410.00 was paid at that time. The landlord's application indicates that the landlord is seeking $810.00 rent owed for the month of May 2009 and an order of possession pursuant to the Ten-Day Notice which ends the tenancy on April 12, 2009.

Analysis

Based on the testimony and evidence of the landlord, I find that the tenant was served with a Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent. The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and did not apply to dispute the Notice and is therefore conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice. Based on the above facts I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession.

I find that the landlord is entitled to receive rental arrears for April 2009 and has established a total monetary claim of $870.00 comprised of $820.00 rental arrears for the month of April 2009 and the $50.00 fee paid by the landlord for this application. I order that the landlord retain the security deposit and interest of $ 823.86 in partial satisfaction of the claim leaving a balance due of $46.14.

Conclusion

I hereby issue an Order of Possession in favour of the landlord effective two days after service on the tenant. This order must be served on the Respondent and may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

I hereby grant the Landlord an order under section 67 for $46.14. This order must be served on the Respondent and may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an order of that Court.
