DECISION

Dispute Codes

OPR, MNR, MNSD, FF

Introduction

This matter was conducted by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession, a monetary order and an order to retain the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that at 7:35 p.m., with a witness present, on January 12, 2010 the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via personal delivery at the rental unit address. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document is deemed to have been served on the day of personal delivery

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that the tenant has been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of possession?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent?

May the landlord retain the deposit paid?

Is the landlord entitled to filing fee costs?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the tenant;

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the parties on June 11, 2009, indicating a monthly rent of $800.00 due on the last day of the month and that a deposit of $400.00 was paid on June 10, 2009; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent which was issued on January 5, 2010 with a stated effective vacancy date of January 15, 2010, for $1,600.00 in unpaid rent due December 12, 2009.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the tenant has failed to pay rent owed for December 2009 and January 2010 and was served the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent by personal delivery on January 5, 2010 by the landlord at 5:50 p.m., with a witness present. The Act deems the tenant was served on January 5, 2010.

The Notice states that the tenant had five days to pay the rent or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice to End Tenancy within five days from the date of service.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord.

The notice is deemed to have been received by the tenant on January 5, 2010.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice; January 15, 2010.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of possession, a monetary Order for unpaid December 2009 and January 2010 rent, and the application fee cost.

Conclusion

I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession effective two days after service on the tenant and the Order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I find that the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation pursuant section 67 in the amount of $1,650.00 comprised of $1,600.00 rent owed and the $50.00 fee paid for this application.

I order that the landlord may retain the deposit and interest held of $400.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and grant an Order for the balance due of $1,250.00. This Order must be served on the tenant and may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
