Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on the Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent dated August 9, 2010, 2010, a monetary order for rent owed and an order to retain the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim.

Although served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing by registered mail sent on September 10, 2010 the tenant did not appear.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be determined based on the testimony and the evidence are:

Is the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession based on the Notice?

Is the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation for rental arrears owed?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted into evidence a copy of the 10-Day Notice to End Tenancy dated August 9, 2010, 2009 with effective date of August 24, 2010, a copy of the resident ledger and a copy of the tenancy agreement. The landlord testified that the tenancy began on January 2004, at which time the tenant paid a security deposit of $300. The current rent is $667.70. The landlord testified that the tenant failed to pay $667.70 rent for the months of August, September and October 2010 amounting to a total of $2,003.10 and also owed late charges of $75.00 and accrued arrears from the past of $89.70. The total claim is for $2,167.80 and the $50.00 cost of filing. The landlord testified that the tenant has not vacated the unit and the landlord has requested an Order of Possession.

Analysis

Based on the testimony of the landlord, I find that the tenant was served with a Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent by registered mail. The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and did not apply to dispute the Notice and is therefore conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice. Based on the above facts I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession.

I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $2,217.80 comprised of $2,092.80 accrued rental arrears, $75.00 late fees and the $50.00 fee paid by the landlord for this application. I order that the landlord retain the security deposit and interest of $310.61 in partial satisfaction of the claim leaving a balance due of $1,907.19.

Conclusion

I hereby issue an Order of Possession in favour of the landlord effective two days after service on the tenant. This order must be served on the Respondent and may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

I hereby grant the Landlord an order under section 67 for $1,907.19. This order must be served on the Respondent and may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
