

DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR, MNR, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession, a monetary order and an order to retain the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim. Both parties participated in the conference call hearing. The landlord presented evidence that the tenants were served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing by registered mail on February 12, 2011. I found that the tenant had been properly served with notice of the landlord's claim and the date and time of the hearing and the hearing proceeded in their absence. At the outset of the hearing the landlord withdrew his application for an Order of Possession as the tenant has already vacated the rental unit.

Issues to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent and loss of income?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on or about May 1, 2010. Rent in the amount of $800.00 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. At the outset of the tenancy the landlord collected from the tenant a security deposit in the amount of $400.00. The tenant failed to pay rent in the months of December 2010 and January 2011 and on February 8, 2011 the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy. The tenant further failed to pay rent in the month February 2011.

Analysis

The tenant did not pay the outstanding rent within 5 days of receiving the notice and did not apply for dispute resolution to dispute the notice and is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice.

As for the monetary order, I find that the landlord has established a claim for $2,400.00 in unpaid rent. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee. I order that the landlord retain the $400.00 deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $2,050.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

The landlord is granted an order of possession and a monetary order for $2,050.00. The landlord may retain the security deposit.
