DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR, MNR, MNSD, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing was convened in response to an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) for Orders as follows:

1. An Order of Possession - Section 55;
2. A Monetary Order for unpaid rent / loss of revenue - Section 67;
3. An Order to retain the security / pet deposit - Section 38
4. An Order to recover the filing fee for this application - Section 72.

I accept the Landlord’s evidence that the Tenant was served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing by personal service in accordance with Section 89 of the Act. The Tenant did not participate in the conference call hearing.

The Landlord was given full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the notice to end tenancy valid?

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession?

Is the Landlord entitled to the monetary amounts claimed?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on June 1, 2010. Rent in the amount of $745.00 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. The Landlord stated that there is no record of a security deposit having been received by the Landlord. The Tenant failed to pay the full amount of rent for January 2011 and $245.00 remain in arrears for that month. The Tenant further failed to pay rent for the month of February 2011 and on February 22, 2011 the Landlord personally served the Tenant with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. Information on the file indicates that the Tenant has not filed an Application for Dispute Resolution. The Landlord states that the Tenant has not moved out of the unit and has further failed to pay rent for March and April 2011. The quantum of the Landlord's monetary claim is $2,470.00.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent the tenant must, within five days, either pay the full amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If the tenant does neither of these two things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

Based on the Landlord's testimony I find that the Tenant was served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent and I find the notice to be valid. The Tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and has not applied for Dispute Resolution to dispute the notice. The Tenant is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice. Given the above facts, I find that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession. I also find that the Landlord has established a monetary claim for $2,470.00 in unpaid rent. The Landlord is entitled to recovery of the $50 filing fee, for a total entitlement of $2,520.00.

Calculation for Monetary Order

Rental Arrears	$2,470.00
Filing Fees for the cost of this application	50.00

Total Monetary Award	$2,520.00
-----------------------------	-------------------

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the Landlord. The Tenant must be served with this Order of Possession. Should the Tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

I grant the Landlord a Monetary Order under Section 67 of the Act for $2,520.00. If necessary, this order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
