

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession, a monetary order and an order to retain the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim. The landlord participated in the conference call hearing but the tenant(s) did not. The landlord presented evidence that the tenants were served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing by personal service on August 4, 2011. I found that the tenants had been properly served with notice of the landlord's claim and the date and time of the hearing and the hearing proceeded in their absence. The landlord gave affirmed evidence.

Issues to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession?

Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent and loss of income?

Background and Evidence

At the outset of the hearing the landlord advised that the tenant had moved out on August 16, 2011 and no longer required an order of possession and as a result I dismiss that portion of the landlord's application.

The tenancy began on or about April 16, 2011. Rent in the amount of $800.00 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. The tenant started falling behind in paying the rent early on in the tenancy and made partial payments for several months. On July 25, 2011 the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy, the total outstanding amount of unpaid rent is $1155.00.

Analysis

I accept the landlord's undisputed testimony and I find that the tenant was served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenant did not pay the outstanding rent within 5 days of receiving the notice and did not apply for dispute resolution to dispute the notice and is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice.

As for the monetary order, I find that the landlord has established a claim for $1155.00 in unpaid rent. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee. I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $1205.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

The landlord is granted a monetary order for $1205.00.
