

DECISION

Dispute Codes FF, MNR, OPR

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession, a monetary order and an order to retain the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim. The landlord participated in the conference call hearing but the tenant(s) did not. The landlord presented evidence that the tenants were served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing by personal service on August 23, 2011. I found that the tenants had been properly served with notice of the landlord's claim and the date and time of the hearing and the hearing proceeded in their absence. The landlord gave affirmed evidence.

Issues to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession?

Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent and loss of income?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on or about August 1, 2011. Rent in the amount of $900.00 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. At the outset of the tenancy the landlord collected from the tenant a security deposit in the amount of $450.00. The tenant failed to pay rent in the month(s) of August and on August 17, 2011 the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy. The tenant further failed to pay rent in the month(s) of September. At the outset of the hearing the landlord advised the tenant moved out on September 4, 2011 and no longer requires an order of possession; accordingly I dismiss that portion of the landlord's application. The landlord also advised that the tenant has a total outstanding balance of unpaid rent of $950.00.

The landlord testified to the following; that the tenant "totally destroyed my place in the one month that she lived here", never returned the keys and is still in the midst of cleaning and repairing the unit. The landlord was seeking to recover some of the costs of cleaning and repairing the unit, however it was explained to the landlord that those claims are not part of this application and was given leave to apply for that on a separate application if she chooses to.

Analysis

I accept the landlord's undisputed testimony and I find that the tenant was served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenant did not pay the outstanding rent within 5 days of receiving the notice and did not apply for dispute resolution to dispute the notice and is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice.

As for the monetary order, I find that the landlord has established a claim for $950.00 in unpaid rent. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee. I order that the landlord retain the $450.00 deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $550.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

The landlord is granted a monetary order for $550.00. The landlord may retain the security deposit.
