DECISION

Dispute codes OP MNR MNSD FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order for possession, a monetary order and an order allowing retention of the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim. The landlord also requested recovery of the filing fee for this application. Although served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing sent by registered mail on September 24, 2011 the tenant did not appear.

Issues

Is the landlord entitled to the requested orders?

Background and Evidence

This tenancy began on March 1, 2010. The rent is $700.00 due in advance on the first day of each month. A security deposit of $350.00 was paid at the start of the tenancy. On September 11, 2011 the tenant was served with a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and did not file an application to dispute the Notice.

Ms. A testified that the tenant has not paid any rent for September and October.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent the tenant must, within five days, either pay the full amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If, as in the present case, the tenant does neither of these two things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

As for the rent arrears, the tenant remains liable for the rent for both September and October.

Conclusion

I find that the landlord is entitled to an order for possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $1,450.00 comprised of $1,400.00 in unpaid rent and the $50.00 fee paid by the landlord for this application. I order that the landlord retain the deposit and interest of $350.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $1,100.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
