DECISION

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent. An agent for the landlord and one of the two tenants participated in the teleconference hearing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession?
Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on June 25, 2011. Rent in the amount of $500 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. The tenants failed to pay $750 of the rent in the month of September 2011 and made no payment of rent for October 2011. On October 2, 2011 the landlord served the tenants with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenants did not pay the amounts outstanding for September and October 2011. The tenant did not dispute these facts.

Analysis

I find that the tenants were served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenants have not paid the full outstanding rent and have not applied for dispute resolution to dispute the notice. The tenants are therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice. Based on the above facts I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession.

As for the monetary order, I find that the landlord has established a claim for $2050 in unpaid rent. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50 filing fee.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective two days from service. The tenants must be served with the order of possession. Should the tenants fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $2100. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: November 3, 2011.
