DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, OPC, MNR, MNSD, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an order of possession, a monetary order and to recover the filing fee.

Although served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing by registered mail on January 12, 2012, the tenant did not appear. The landlord testified that the tenant was served via registered mail to the address at which the tenant resides, provided the tracking number for the registered mail envelope and successfully demonstrated sufficient delivery of the documents under Section 89 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"). Thus the hearing proceeded in the tenant's absence.

The landlord appeared, gave affirmed testimony and was provided the opportunity to present his evidence orally and in documentary form, and make submissions to me.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Has the tenant breached the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act") or tenancy agreement, entitling the landlord to an Order of Possession and monetary relief?

Background and Evidence

The landlord testified that this month to month tenancy began on July 1, 2011, monthly rent is $550.00, and a security deposit of $275.00 was paid by the tenant at the beginning of the tenancy, on or about July 1, 2011.

The landlord gave affirmed testimony and supplied evidence that on January 3, 2012, the tenant was served with a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the "Notice"), by personal delivery. The Notice stated the amount of unpaid rent was $575.00, which included a $25.00 late fee. The effective vacancy listed on the Notice was January 13, 2012.

The Notice informed the tenant that the Notice would be cancelled if the rent was paid within five days. The Notice also explained the tenant had five days to dispute the Notice.

I have no evidence before me that the tenant applied to dispute the Notice. The landlord provided affirmed testimony that the tenant has not made any rent payments since issuance of the Notice and currently owes unpaid rent of $550.00 through the date of the hearing, plus an additional $25.00 for a late fee.

The landlord also served a 1 Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause upon the tenant, but due to the issue of unpaid rent, the matters contained in this Notice were no longer required to be considered.

Analysis

Based on the above testimony and evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find as follows:

The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and did not apply to dispute the Notice and is therefore conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant.

I am enclosing an order of possession with the landlord's Decision. This order is a legally binding, final order, and may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia for enforcement should the tenant fail to comply with this order of possession.

I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $625.00 comprised of outstanding rent of $550.00, $25.00 for late payment of rent pursuant to the addendum to the tenancy agreement, and the $50.00 filing fee paid by the landlord for this application.

At the landlord's request, I allow the landlord to retain the tenant's security deposit of $275.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord a monetary order under authority of section 67 of the Act for the balance due of $350.00.

I am enclosing a monetary order for $350.00 with the landlords' Decision. This order is a final, legally binding order, and may be filed in the Provincial Court of British Columbia (Small Claims) for enforcement should the tenants fail to comply with this monetary order.

Conclusion

The landlord is granted an Order of Possession, may keep the tenant's security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim and is granted a monetary order for $350.00.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
