DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the tenant to cancel a one month notice to end tenancy for cause.

Although served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing on January 23, 2012, by personal service the landlord did not appear. The landlord has filed late evidence for this hearing. I find the landlord has been duly served in accordance with the Act.

The tenant has applied to cancel a one month notice to end tenancy for cause issued on January 18, 2012, the effective date in the Notice is February 29, 2012. In a case where a tenant has applied to cancel a notice for cause, Residential Tenancy Branch Rules of Procedure require the landlord to provide their evidence and submission first, as the landlord has the burden of proving cause sufficient to terminate the tenancy for the reasons given on the notice.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Should the one month notice to end tenancy be cancelled?

Background and Evidence

The tenant was served with a one month notice to end tenancy for cause dated January 18, 2012. On January 23, 2012, the tenant disputed the one month notice to end tenancy by filing their application for Dispute Resolution. I find the tenant did dispute the notice to end tenancy within the ten days required by the Act.

Analysis

Based on the above, the testimony and evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find as follows:

The landlord did not appear, and as a result the landlord has not proven that the notice to end tenancy was issued for the reasons set out in the notice.

Therefore, I grant the tenant's application to cancel the notice to end tenancy issued on January 18, 2012. Tenancy will continue until ended in accordance with the Act.

Conclusion

I grant the tenant's application and order that the notice to end tenancy dated January 18, 2012, be cancelled. Tenancy will continue until ended in accordance with the Act.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: February 10, 2012.
