DECISION

Dispute Codes: OPR, MNR, MNSD, FF

Introduction

This hearing was convened in response to an application by the landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for Orders as follows:

1. An Order of Possession - Section 55;
2. A Monetary Order for unpaid rent - Section 67;
3. An Order to retain the security deposit - Section 38
4. An Order to recover the filing fee for this application - Section 72.

I accept the landlord's evidence that despite the tenant having been served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing by personal service in accordance with Section 89 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) the tenant did not participate in the conference call hearing.

The landlord was given full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions.

Preliminary matters

The style of cause in respect to the spelling of tenant's first name has been adjusted to reflect the particulars of the landlord's written application.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the notice to end tenancy valid?
Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession?
Is the landlord entitled to the monetary amounts claimed?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on October 15, 2010. Rent in the amount of $525 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. At the outset of the tenancy, the landlord collected a security deposit from the tenant in the amount of $250. The tenant failed to pay rent in the month of January 2012 and on January 11, 2012 the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. The landlord acknowledged they wrote on the Notice to End that the rent was due December 31, 2011, in error. The tenant has not paid the rent for January 2012. The landlord's monetary claim is for the unpaid rent for January 2012 in the amount of $525.

Analysis

Based on the landlord's testimony and evidence I find that the tenant was served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent and I find the notice to be valid. The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and has not applied for Dispute Resolution to dispute the notice and is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice.

Based on the above facts I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession.

I find that the landlord has established a monetary claim for $525 in unpaid rent. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50 filing fee, for a total entitlement of $575. The security deposit will be off-set from the award made herein.

Calculation for Monetary Order

Rental Arrears for January 2012	$525.00
Less Security Deposit and applicable interest to date	-250.00
Total Monetary Award	$325.00

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective 2 days from the day it is served on the tenant. The tenant must be served with this Order of Possession. Should the tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

I order that the landlord retain the deposit and interest of $250 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under Section 67 of the Act for the balance due of $325. If necessary, this order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
