DECISION

Dispute Codes      CNC, DRI

This matter was set for a conference call hearing at 9:30a.m on this date. Both parties have applied for dispute resolution. This matter was adjourned from the original hearing date to allow both parties to submit further evidence to support their position, no evidence or testimony was entered before me as the hearing had not yet commenced. Based on the above facts and due to neither party calling into the conference call, both applications are dismissed with leave to reapply. Leave to reapply is not an extension of any applicable limitation period.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: March 22, 2012.
