Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the parties may attempt to settle their dispute during a hearing. Pursuant to this provision, discussion between the parties during the hearing led to a resolution. Specifically, it was agreed as follows;

1. Both parties agree that the tenancy will end on or before 1:00 p.m. on May 1, 2012.
2. Both parties agree that the landlord will retain the $425.00 security deposit that he already holds in trust.
3. Both parties agree that the tenant will pay the landlord $475.00. Those payments will be in monthly increments of $100.00 till the total amount is paid. Said payments are to be made by cheque or money order.

The above particulars comprise full and final settlement of all aspects of the dispute arising from this application for both parties.

Pursuant to this agreement the landlord will be given an order of possession to reflect condition #1 of this agreement. Should it be necessary, this order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Pursuant to this agreement the landlord will be given a monetary order to reflect condition #3 of this agreement. Should it be necessary, this order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: April 26, 2012.
