DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, MNSD, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the landlord's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for:

- an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to section 55;
- a monetary order for unpaid rent and for money owed or compensation for damage or loss under the Act, regulation or tenancy agreement pursuant to section 67;
- authorization to retain all or a portion of the tenant's security deposit in partial satisfaction of the monetary order requested pursuant to section 38; and
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application from the tenant pursuant to section 72.

The tenant did not attend this hearing, although I waited until 1:44 p.m. in order to enable her to connect with this teleconference hearing scheduled for 1:30 p.m. The landlord attended the hearing and was given a full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions. The landlord testified that she posted a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) on the tenant's door at approximately 9:00 p.m. on April 11, 2012. The landlord's witness gave sworn testimony that she watched the landlord post the 10 Day Notice on the tenant's door at that time and date. The landlord testified that her office sent the tenant a copy of the landlord's dispute resolution hearing package by registered mail on May 2, 2012. She provided a copy of the Canada Post Tracking Number and Customer Receipt to confirm this mailing. I am satisfied that the landlord served these documents to the tenant in accordance with the Act.

Issues(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent? Is the landlord entitled to a monetary award for unpaid rent and losses arising out of this tenancy? Is the landlord entitled to retain all or a portion of the tenant's security deposit in partial satisfaction of the monetary award requested? Is the landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application from the tenant?

Background and Evidence

This periodic tenancy commenced on October 15, 2007. Monthly rent by July 1, 2010 and at this point in the tenancy is set at $608.88, payable in advance on the first of each month. The landlord continues to hold a $295.00 security deposit paid by the tenant on October 15, 2007.

The landlord testified that the tenant has not made any payments to the landlord since the landlord issued the 10 Day Notice for unpaid rent of $608.88 owing for April 2012. The landlord applied for a monetary Order of $1,217.76 in unpaid rent for April and May 2012.

Analysis

The tenant failed to pay the April 2012 rent in full within five days of receiving the 10 Day Notice. The tenant has not made application pursuant to section 46(4) of the Act within five days of receiving the 10 Day Notice. In accordance with section 46(5) of the Act, the tenant's failure to take either of these actions within five days led to the end of her tenancy on the corrected effective date of the notice. In this case, this required the tenant to vacate the premises by April 24, 2012. As that has not occurred, I find that the landlord is entitled to a 2 day Order of Possession. The landlord will be given a formal Order of Possession which must be served on the tenant. If the tenant does not vacate the rental unit within the 2 days required, the landlord may enforce this Order in the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Based on the undisputed evidence presented by the landlord, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary award of $608.88 for unpaid rent for each of April and May 2012. I allow the landlord to retain the tenant's security deposit plus applicable interest in partial satisfaction of the above monetary award. As the landlord has been successful in this application, I find that the landlord is entitled to recover the filing fee from the tenant.

Conclusion

I provide the landlord with a formal copy of an Order of Possession to take effect within 2 days of the landlord's service of this notice to the tenant. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

I issue a monetary Order in the landlord's favour in the following terms which allows the landlord to recover unpaid rent and the filing fee for this application from the tenant and to retain the tenant's security deposit:

Item	Amount
Unpaid April 2012 Rent	$608.88
Unpaid May 2012 Rent	608.88
Less Security Deposit plus Interest ($295.00 + $5.39 = $300.39)	-300.39
Recovery of Filing Fee for this application	50.00
Total Monetary Order	$967.37

The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant must be served with a copy of these Orders as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
