Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act for an order of possession and for a monetary order for unpaid rent.

The notice of hearing was served on the tenant by registered mail on April 13, 2012. The landlord provided a tracking number. Despite having been served the notice of hearing, the tenant did not attend the hearing. The landlord attended the hearing and was given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions.

Issues to be decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession? Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order to recover unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy started in March, 2011. The monthly rent is $1,350.00.

The tenant failed to pay rent for April 2012. On April 05, 2012 the landlord served the tenant with a ten day notice to end tenancy.

The landlord stated that the tenant did not pay the outstanding rent and continues to occupy the rental unit. The landlord has applied for an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and for a monetary order in the amount of rent for April ($1,350.00).

Analysis

Based on the undisputed sworn testimony of the landlord, I accept the landlord's evidence in respect of the claim. The tenant received the notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent, on April 05, 2012 and did not pay rent within five days of receiving the notice to end tenancy nor did the tenant make application, pursuant to Section 46 to set aside the notice to end a residential tenancy, and the time to do so has expired.

In these situations, the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the tenant has been deemed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the date set out in the Notice. Pursuant to section 55(2) I am issuing a formal order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

I find that the landlord is entitled to his monetary claim of $1,350.00. I grant the landlord an order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act for this amount. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and a monetary order in the amount of $1,350.00.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
