DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, OPC, MNR, MNSD, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the landlord's Application for Dispute Resolution seeking an order of possession and a monetary order.

The hearing was conducted via teleconference and was attended by two agents for the landlord and the tenant.

In the landlord's Application they have indicated they seek an order of possession for both unpaid rent and for cause, however, I clarified at the start of the hearing the landlord is not seeking, in this hearing, an order of possession based on cause, I therefore amend the landlord's Application to exclude the matter of cause.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be decided are whether the landlord is entitled to an order of possession for unpaid rent; to a monetary order for unpaid rent; for all or part of the security deposit and to recover the filing fee from the tenant for the cost of the Application for Dispute Resolution, pursuant to Sections 38, 46, 55, 67, and 72 of the Residential Tenancy Act (Act).

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following documentary evidence:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the parties on October 22, 2009 for a month to month tenancy beginning on December 1, 2009 for the monthly rent of $965.00 due on the 1st of each month and a security deposit of $350.00 was paid;
- A copy of a letter dated January 4, 2012 stating the tenant had completed an Application for Rent Subsidy and based on the application her monthly rent contribution from January 1, 2012 to December 31, 2012 would be $554.00; and

- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent that was issued on May 8, 2012 with an effective vacancy date of May 18, 2012 due to $578.00 in unpaid rent.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates the tenant failed to pay the full rent owed for the months of April, May, and June 2012 and that the tenant was served the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent by posting it to the rental unit door on May 8, 2012.

The tenant testified that she has been out of town working for several months and has not actually received the Notice that was posted on her door but she acknowledges her responsibilities and accepts the end of the tenancy and monies owed.

The Notice states the tenant had five days to pay the rent or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end. The tenant did not pay the rent in full or apply to dispute the Notice to End Tenancy within five days.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord. The notice is deemed to have been received by the tenant on May 11, 2012 and the effective date of the notice is amended to May 21, 2012, pursuant to Section 53 of the Act. I accept the evidence before me that the tenant failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under Section 46(4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find the tenant is conclusively presumed under Section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

Conclusion

I find the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order must be served on the tenant. If the tenant fails to comply with this order the landlord may file the order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia and be enforced as an order of that Court.

I find the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation pursuant to Section 67 in the amount of $1,182.00 comprised of $1,132.00 rent owed and the $50.00 fee paid by the landlord for this application.

I order the landlord may deduct the security deposit and interest held in the amount of $350.00 in partial satisfaction of this claim. I grant a monetary order in the amount of $832.00.

This order must be served on the tenant. If the tenant fails to comply with this order the landlord may file the order in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and be enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
