Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant, pursuant to section 38 of the Residential Tenancy Act, for a monetary order for the return of double the security deposit. Both parties attended the hearing and were given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions.

Issues to be Decided

Is the tenant entitled to the return of double the security deposit?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy started on April 01, 2010 and prior to moving in the tenant paid a security deposit of $437.50 and a pet deposit of $400.00. The tenant moved out on March 31, 2012 and provided the landlord with his forwarding address shortly after.

During the hearing the parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the dispute resolution officer may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the hearing, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle these matters, on the following conditions:

1. The tenant agreed to withdraw her claim for double the security deposit and accept $250.00 in full settlement of all his claims against the landlord. A monetary order will be issued to the tenant for this amount.
2. The landlord agreed to pay the tenant $250.00 in full and final settlement of all claims against the tenant.
3. Both parties stated that they understood and agreed to the above terms of this agreement which comprise of full and final settlement of all aspects of the dispute for both parties.

Conclusion

Pursuant to the above agreement, I grant the tenant a monetary order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act for the amount of $250.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.
