DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, MNSD, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the landlord's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for:

- an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to section 55;
- a monetary order for unpaid rent and for money owed or compensation for damage or loss under the Act, regulation or tenancy agreement pursuant to section 67;
- authorization to retain all or a portion of the tenant's security deposit in partial satisfaction of the monetary order requested pursuant to section 38; and
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application from the tenant pursuant to section 72.

The tenant did not attend this hearing, although I waited until 9:13 a.m. in order to enable the tenant to connect with this teleconference hearing scheduled for 9:00 a.m. The landlord attended the hearing and was given a full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions. The landlord testified that she posted a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) on the tenant's door on May 3, 2012. She testified that she sent the tenant a copy of the landlord's dispute resolution hearing package by registered mail on May 30, 2012. She provided a copy of the Canada Post Tracking Number to confirm this mailing and testified that she had checked Canada Post's on-line tracking service and learned that the tenant had received the hearing package. I am satisfied that the landlord served the above documents in accordance with the Act.

At the hearing, I agreed to the landlord's request to correct the spelling of the tenant's last name (i.e., removing one "i") to reflect the spelling used in the original residential tenancy agreement for this tenancy. The Act allows me to make minor corrections of this type.

Issues(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent? Is the landlord entitled to a monetary award for unpaid rent and losses arising out of this tenancy? Is the landlord entitled to retain all or a portion of the tenant's security deposit in partial satisfaction of the monetary award requested? Is the landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application from the tenant?

Background and Evidence

This tenancy commenced initially as a one-year fixed term tenancy on December 1, 1999. At the expiration of the initial term, this converted to a periodic tenancy. Monthly rent is currently set at $735.65, payable in advance on the first. The landlord continues to hold the tenant's $270.00 security deposit paid on December 1, 1999.

The landlord issued the 10 Day Notice for unpaid rent of $735.65 for May 2012. She testified that since issuing the 10 Day Notice the landlord has not received any payments from the tenant. The landlord's application for a monetary award of $1,471.30 is for unpaid rent from May and June 2012.

Analysis

The tenant failed to pay the May 2012 rent in full within five days of receiving the 10 Day Notice. The tenant has not made application pursuant to section 46(4) of the Act within five days of receiving the 10 Day Notice. In accordance with section 46(5) of the Act, the tenant's failure to take either of these actions within five days led to the end of his tenancy on the corrected effective date of the notice. In this case, this required the tenant to vacate the premises by May 16, 2012. As that has not occurred, I find that the landlord is entitled to a 2 day Order of Possession. The landlord will be given a formal Order of Possession which must be served on the tenant. If the tenant does not vacate the rental unit within the 2 days required, the landlord may enforce this Order in the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Based on the landlord's undisputed evidence, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary award of $1,471.30 for rent owing for May and June 2012. I allow the landlord to retain the security deposit held for this tenancy plus applicable interest to partially satisfy this monetary award. As the landlord has been successful in this application, I allow the landlord's application to recover the filing fee from the tenant.

Conclusion

I provide the landlord with a formal copy of an Order of Possession to take effect within 2 days of the landlord's service of this notice to the tenant(s). Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

I issue a monetary Order in the landlord's favour under the following terms which allows the landlord to recover unpaid rent and the filing fee for this application and to retain the tenant's security deposit:

Item	Amount
Unpaid May 2012 Rent	$735.65
Unpaid June 2012 Rent	735.65
Less Security Deposit plus Interest ($270.00 + $24.27 = $294.27)	-294.27
Recovery of Filing Fee for this application	50.00
Total Monetary Order	$1,227.03

The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant must be served with a copy of these Orders as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
