DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter was conducted by way of a Direct Request proceeding, pursuant to Section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act in response to an application made by the landlord for an Order of Possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request which declares that on September 18, 2012 the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail. Section 90 of the Act provides that a document is deemed to have been served 5 days after mailing. Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that the tenant has been served with the Notice of Direct Request proceeding requesting an Order of Possession and a monetary order.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent?
Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenant on May 24, 2012 for a tenancy commencing on June 1, 2012, for the monthly rent of $800.00 payable on the 1st day of each month;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent or Utilities which was issued on September 4, 2012 with an effective date of vacancy of September 14, 2012, due to $1,200.00 in unpaid rent that was due on September 1, 2012 (both pages of the 2-page form have been provided);
- A copy of a Proof of Service of the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent or Utilities that states that the tenant was served with the notice on September 4, 2012 by leaving a copy with the tenant personally;
- The Landlord's Application for Dispute Resolution dated September 17, 2012 which states that the tenant has not paid the full amount of rent for the month of August, 2012, leaving a balance outstanding of $400.00 and that no rent has been paid for the month of September, 2012, leaving a further balance outstanding of $800.00, and that the sum of $1,200.00 has accumulated and is now overdue.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with the notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord, which was received by the tenant on September 4, 2012.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed within the 5 days provided under Section 46(4) of the Act. I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under Section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice.

I therefore find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent.

Conclusion

For the reasons set out above, I hereby grant an Order of Possession in favour of the landlord effective 2 days after service on the tenant.

I further grant a monetary order in the amount of $1,200.00 in favour of the landlord pursuant to Section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act.

This order is final and binding on the parties and may be enforced.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: September 26, 2012.
