DECISION

Dispute Codes:

OPR, MNR, MNSD, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act for an order of possession and for a monetary order for unpaid rent and the filing fee. The landlord also applied to retain the security deposit in partial satisfaction of his monetary claim.

The notice of hearing was served on the tenant on September 18, 2012 in person. Despite having been served the notice of hearing, the tenant did not attend the hearing. The landlord attended the hearing and was given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions.

Issues to be decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession? Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order to recover unpaid rent, the filing fee and to retain the security deposit?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy started approximately five years ago. The tenant was formerly employed by the landlord. The employment ended in June 2012. The monthly rent after the employment ended was $650.00 per month due on the first of each month. The tenant paid a security deposit of $175.00.

The landlord testified that the tenant failed to pay full rent for July and August 2012. On September 01, 2012, the landlord served the tenant with a ten day notice to end tenancy. The tenant did not dispute the notice and continued to occupy the rental unit without paying rent. At the time of the hearing the tenant also owed the landlord $650.00 for September 2012. The landlord did not make a claim for rent for October.

The landlord is applying for an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and a monetary order in the amount of $1,300.00 which consists of unpaid rent for July 2012 (300.00), unpaid rent for August 2012 ($300.00), unpaid rent for September 2012 ($650.00) plus the filing fee ($50.00).

Analysis

Based on the undisputed sworn testimony of the landlord, I accept the landlord's evidence in respect of the claim. The tenant received the notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent, on September 01, 2012 and did not pay rent within five days of receiving the notice to end tenancy nor did the tenant make application, pursuant to Section 46 to set aside the notice to end a residential tenancy, and the time to do so has expired.

In these situations, the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the tenant has been deemed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the date set out in the Notice. Pursuant to section 55(2) I am issuing a formal order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

I find that the landlord is entitled to $1,250.00 for unpaid rent. Since the landlord has proven his case, he is also entitled to the recovery of the filing fee of $50.00. I order that the landlord retain the security deposit of $175.00 plus accrued interest in the amount of $2.62 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act for the balance due of $1,122.38. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and a monetary order in the amount of $1,122.38.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: October 18, 2012.
