DECISION

Dispute Codes      CNC

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the tenants to cancel a one month notice to end tenancy for cause, issued on September 12, 2012.

This matter was set for hearing by telephone conference call at 11:30 A.M on this date. The line remained open while the phone system was monitored for ten minutes and the only participant who called into the hearing during this time was the landlord.

Therefore, as the tenants did not attend the hearing by 11:40 A.M, and the landlord appeared and was ready to proceed, I dismiss the tenants' application without leave to reapply.

As the tenants' application is dismissed and the landlord requested an order of possession at the hearing, pursuant to section 55 of the Act, I must grant this request.

Section 55(1) of the Act states:

Order of possession for the landlord

55 (1) If a tenant makes an application for dispute resolution to dispute a landlord's notice to end a tenancy, the director must grant an order of possession of the rental unit to the landlord if, at the time scheduled for the hearing,

(a) the landlord makes an oral request for an order of possession, and

(b) the director dismisses the tenant's application or upholds the landlord's notice.

As I have dismissed the tenants' application, I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective OCTOBER 31, 2012, at 1:00 P.M.

This order must be served on the tenants and may be filed in the Supreme Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: October 26, 2012.
