DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR MNR

Introduction

This hearing proceeded by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Act, and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the Landlord for an Order of Possession for unpaid rent and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent.

The Landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on December 22, 2012, the Landlord served the Tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding in person at the rental unit and by registered mail. Canada Post receipts were provided in the Landlord's evidence. Based on the written submissions of the Landlord, I find that the Tenant has been sufficiently served with the Dispute Resolution Direct Request Proceeding documents.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order pursuant to section 55 of the Residential Tenancy Act?

Background and Evidence

I have carefully reviewed the following evidentiary material submitted by the Landlord:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the Tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by a previous landlord and the Tenant for a month to month tenancy that began on April 01, 2012, for the monthly rent of $650.00 due on 1st of the month and a security deposit of $325.00 was paid; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent which was issued on, December 5, 2012, with an effective vacancy date listed as December 16, 2012, due to $650.00 in unpaid rent that was due on December 1, 2012.
- A copy of a warning letter issued to the Tenant

- A copy of the transfer of title of the property indicating the applicant to this dispute as the new owner of the property.

Documentary evidence filed by the Landlord indicates that the Tenant was served the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent on December 5, 2012 at 2:30 p.m. when it was posted to the Tenant's door at the rental unit in the presence of a witness.

Analysis

Service of Direct Request Proceeding Documents – The Landlord submitted a completed Proof of Service document which indicates the Tenant was served the hearing documents in person at the rental unit and by registered mail. As this is an ex-parte decision there is no opportunity to clarify if the Tenant was served the Direct Request documents twice. Therefore, I find the Tenant was served the Direct Request documents by registered mail and is deemed to have received the documents on December 27, 2012, five days after they were mailed in accordance with section 90 of the Act.

Order of Possession - I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the Tenant has been served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the Landlord. The notice is deemed to be received by the Tenant on December 8, 2012, three days after it was posted to their door, and the effective date of the notice is December 18, 2012, pursuant to section 90 of the Act. I accept the evidence before me that the Tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the Tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice and I hereby grant the Landlord an Order of Possession.

Monetary Order – The evidence supports that the Tenant has failed to pay the December 1, 2012 rent of $650.00 in violation of section 26 of the Act which provides that a tenant must pay rent when it is due under the tenancy agreement. As per the aforementioned I approve the Landlord's request for a Monetary Order for $650.00.

Any deposits currently held in trust by the Landlord are to be administered in accordance with Section 38 of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Conclusion

I HEREBY FIND that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession effective two days after service on the Tenant. This Order is legally binding and must be served upon the Tenant.

The Landlord's decision will be accompanied by a Monetary Order for $650.00. This Order is legally binding and must be served upon the Tenant.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: January 02, 2013.
