DECISION

Dispute Codes: CNC, FF

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant for an order to set aside a notice to end tenancy for cause and for the recovery of the filing fee. This matter was set for a conference call hearing at 1:00 p.m. on this date. As of 1:10 p.m., the applicant/tenant had not called into the conference call. The respondent/landlord called in.

On October 26, 2012, the applicant wrote a letter to the landlord advising him that he had accepted the one month notice to end tenancy. The tenant also filed a copy of this letter into evidence.

During the waiting period, the landlord made an oral request for an order of possession. At the applicant's request, the notice to end tenancy is upheld.

The landlord made a request under section 48 of the legislation for an order of possession. Under the provisions of section 48, upon the request of a landlord, I must issue an order of possession when I have upheld a notice to end tenancy. Accordingly, I so order. The tenant must be served with the order of possession. Should the tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

The notice to end tenancy is upheld and I grant the landlord an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Manufactured Home Park Tenancy Act.
