A matter regarding Hume Investments Ltd.
and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter was conducted by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession and a monetary order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on February 13, 2013 at 5 p.m. the landlord personally served each tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding, at the rental unit address. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document is deemed to have been served on the day of personal delivery.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that each tenant has been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents effective February 13, 2013.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of possession?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid January and February 2013 rent?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the parties on April 27, 2012, indicating a total monthly rent of $695.00 due on or before the first day of the month; and

- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent which was issued on February 2, 2013 with a stated effective vacancy date of February 12, 2013, for $1,005.00 in unpaid January and February, 2013 rent.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the tenants have failed to pay rent owed and were served the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent by posting to the tenant's door on February 2, 2013 at 4 p.m. with the landlord's agent's spouse present as a witness.

The Notice states that the tenants had five days to pay the rent or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end.

The landlord has claimed compensation for $310.00 owed in January and $695.00 for unpaid February 2013 rent.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenants have been served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord.

The Notice is deemed to have been received by the tenants on February 5, 2013; the 3rd day after posting.

Section 53 of the Act allows the effective date of a Notice to be changed to the earliest date upon which the Notice complies with the Act; therefore, I find that the Notice effective date is changed to February 15, 2013.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenants have failed to pay the January and February 2013 rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act. There was no evidence before me that the tenants applied to dispute the Notice.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenants are conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice; February 15, 2013.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of possession and a monetary Order for unpaid January and February 2013 rent in the sum of $1,005.00.

Based on these determinations I grant the landlord a monetary Order in the sum of $1,005.00. In the event that the tenants do not comply with this Order, it may be served on the tenants, filed with the Province of British Columbia Small Claims Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

The landlord has been granted an Order of possession that is effective two days after it is served upon the tenants. This Order may be served on the tenants, filed with the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an Order of that Court.

Conclusion

The landlord is entitled to an Order of possession and a monetary for unpaid January and February 2013, rent.

This decision is final and binding on the parties, unless otherwise provided under the Act, and is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
