RECORD OF SETTLEMENT

Dispute Codes      CNC

Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the parties may attempt to settle their dispute during a hearing. Pursuant to this provision, discussion between the parties during the hearing led to a resolution. Specifically, it was agreed as follows;

1. Both parties agree that the One Month Notice to End Tenancy was no longer required and that it be set aside. Based on that, the parties both agree that the tenancy will end and that the tenant will move out on or before 1:00 p.m. April 30, 2013.
2. Both parties agree to sign a Mutual End of Tenancy to reflect the condition as above and to provide each with a copy of said agreement.

Pursuant to this agreement the landlord will be given an order of possession to reflect condition #1 of this agreement. Should it be necessary, this order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

The above particulars comprise full and final settlement of all aspects of the dispute arising from this application for both parties.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
