DECISION

Dispute Codes: OPR, MNR, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act for an order of possession and for a monetary order for unpaid rent, and the filing fee. Both parties attended the hearing and were given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions.

During the hearing the parties indicated that the address of the dispute rental unit was changed by the City municipality. Accordingly the landlord's application has been amended.

Issues to be decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession? Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order to recover unpaid rent, and the filing fee?

Background and Evidence

The landlord purchased the rental unit in 2005. The tenants were already in place and continued to occupy the rental unit. The rent is $1,190.00 payable on the first of the month and does not include utilities. On February 12, 2013, the landlord served the tenant with a ten day notice to end tenancy. The tenant agreed that as of the date of this hearing, she owed rent in the amount of $1,785.00.

The landlord is applying for an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and for a monetary order in the amount of $1,785.00 for unpaid rent plus $50.00 for the filing fee.

Analysis

Based on the sworn testimony of the both parties, I accept the landlord's evidence in respect of the claim. The tenant received the notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent, on February 12, 2013 and did not pay full rent within five days of receiving the notice to end tenancy nor did the tenant make application, pursuant to Section 46 to set aside the notice to end a residential tenancy, and the time to do so has expired.

In these situations, the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the tenant has been deemed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the date set out in the Notice. Pursuant to section 55(2) I am issuing a formal order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

I also find that the landlord is entitled to a total of $1,785.00 for unpaid rent. Since the landlord has proven her case she is also entitled to the filing fee of $50.00. I grant the landlord an order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act for the amount of 1,835.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and a monetary order for $1,835.00.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
