DECISION

Dispute Codes MNSD, FF

Introduction

This is an application by the tenant for a monetary order for return of the security deposit, and the filing fee for the claim.

Although served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing by registered mail sent on February 14, 2013, a Canada post tracking number was provided as evidence of service. Also provided as evidence was a Canada post tracking history, which indicated the item was successfully delivered on February 23, 2013, the landlord did not appear. I find that the landlord has been duly served in accordance with the Act.

The tenant gave testimony and was provided the opportunity to present their evidence orally and in written and documentary form, and to make submissions to me.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the tenant entitled to a monetary order for return of the security deposit?

Background and Evidence

The tenant paid a security deposit of $700.00 at the start of the tenancy which began on April 1, 2010. The tenant vacated the premises on December 1, 2013.

The tenant provided the landlord with her forwarding address in writing by registered mail sent on January 13, 2013, a Canada post tracking number was provided as evidence of service. Also provided as evidence was a Canada post tracking history, which indicated the item was successfully delivered on February 1, 2013.

The tenant stated landlord has failed to return her security deposit and she did not give the landlord permission to retain any portion of the deposit.

Analysis

Based on the above, the testimony and evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find that the landlord is in breach of the Act.

There was no evidence to show that the tenant had agreed in writing, that the landlord could retain any portion of the security deposit.

There was also no evidence to show that the landlord had applied for arbitration, within 15 days of the end of the tenancy or receipt of the forwarding address of the tenant, to retain a portion of the security deposit.

The landlord has breached section 38 of the Act. The landlord is in the business of renting and therefore, has a duty to abide by the laws pertaining to residential tenancies.

The security deposit is held in trust for the tenant by the landlord. At no time does the landlord have the ability to simply keep the security deposit because they feel they are entitled to it or are justified to keep it.

The landlord may only keep all or a portion of the security deposit through the authority of the Act, such as an order from an Arbitrator. Here the landlord did not have any authority under the Act to keep any portion of the security deposit. Therefore, I find that the landlord is not entitled to retain any portion of the security deposit.

Section 38(6) provides that if a landlord does not comply with section 38(1), the landlord must pay the tenant double the amount of the security deposit. The legislation does not provide any flexibility on this issue.

Conclusion

Having made the above findings, I must order, pursuant to section 38 and 67 of the Act, that the landlord pays the tenant the sum of $1,450.00, comprised of double the security deposit ($700.00) on the original amount held and the $50.00 fee for filing this Application.

The tenant is given a formal order in the above terms and the landlord must be served with a copy of this order as soon as possible. Should the landlord fail to comply with this order, the order may be filed in the small claims division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an order of that court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
