DECISION

Dispute codes      OP MNR MNSD FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession, a monetary order and an order allowing retention of the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim. The hearing was conducted by conference call. The landlord called in and participated in the hearing. The tenants did not appear although they were served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing by registered mail sent on May 22, 2013.

Issues

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession?

Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order?

Is the landlord entitled to an order allowing retention of the security deposit?

Background and Evidence

This tenancy began on March 15, 2013. The rent is $1,000.00 due in advance on the first day of each month. The tenants paid a security deposit of $500.00 and a pet deposit of $500.00 at the start of the tenancy. The tenants did not pay rent for May when it was due. On May 7, 2013 the landlord's agent personally served the female tenant with a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent at the rental property. The tenants have not paid the rent for May or for June and they did not file an application to dispute the Notice to End Tenancy.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent the tenant must, within five days, either pay the full amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If, as in the present case, the tenants do neither of these two things, the tenants are conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

Conclusion

Order of Possession - Based on the above background, evidence and analysis I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Monetary Order and Security Deposit – I allow the landlord to amend the application to claim unpaid rent for June. I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $2,000.00 for the outstanding rent for May and June. The landlord is entitled to recover the $50.00 filing fee for this application for a total award of $2,050.00. I order that the landlord retain the deposits and interest of $1,000.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $1,050.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
