Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant for an order to set aside a notice to end tenancy for cause. The tenant also applied for an order directing the landlord to comply with the Act, carry out repairs and provide services. The tenant also applied for the recovery of the filing fee.

Both parties attended the hearing and had opportunity to be heard. The tenant acknowledged receipt of evidence submitted by the landlord.

Issue to be Decided

Does the landlord have grounds to end this tenancy? Is the tenant entitled to the other remedies that she is seeking in her application?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on March 01, 2012. On April 30, 2013, the landlord served the tenant with a one-month notice to end tenancy for cause with an effective date of May 31, 2013.

The reasons for the notice were discussed at length. During the hearing, the parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their dispute. Both parties agreed to the following terms:

1. The tenant agreed to move out on or before 1:00p.m. on June30, 2013.
2. The landlord agreed to allow the tenancy to continue till 1:00 p.m. June30, 2013.
3. The landlord will be issued an order of possession effective this date.
4. Both parties stated that they understood and agreed that these particulars comprise the full and final settlement of all aspects of this dispute for both parties.

Pursuant to the above agreement, I grant the landlord an order of possession effective on or before 1:00p.m. June 30, 2013. Should the tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

Since the tenancy is ending the other portions of the tenant's application are moot and accordingly dismissed.

As this dispute was resolved by mutual agreement and not based on the merits of the case, I decline the tenant's request to recover the filing fee paid for this application

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective on or before 1:00p.m. on June30, 2013.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
