DECISION

Dispute Codes: OPR, MNR, MND, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act for an order of possession and for a monetary order for unpaid rent, cost of repairs and the filing fee.

The notice of hearing was served on the tenant by registered mail on June 10, 2013. The landlord provided a tracking number. Despite having been served the notice of hearing, the tenant did not attend the hearing. The landlord attended the hearing and was given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions.

During the hearing, the landlord requested that his application for the cost of repairs be dismissed with leave to reapply. Since the tenant is currently in occupation of the rental unit, I allow the landlord's request. Accordingly, this hearing only dealt with the landlord's application for an order of possession, a monetary order for unpaid rent and the filing fee.

Issues to be decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession? Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order to recover unpaid rent and the filing fee?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy started on March 07, 2013. The rent is $750.00 due on the first of the month.

The tenant failed to pay full rent for May. On May 28, 2013; the landlord served the tenant in person with a ten day notice to end tenancy for $375.00 in unpaid rent. The tenant did not pay rent and continues to occupy the rental unit. As of the day of this hearing the tenant owed $375.00 for May and $750.00 for June 2013.

The landlord is applying for an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and a monetary order for $1,125.00 for unpaid rent plus the filing fee of $50.00, for a total of $1,175.00.

Analysis

Based on the undisputed sworn testimony of the landlord, I accept the landlord's evidence in respect of the claim. The tenant received the notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent, on May 28, 2013 and did not pay rent within five days of receiving the notice to end tenancy nor did the tenant make application, pursuant to Section 46 to set aside the notice to end a residential tenancy, and the time to do so has expired.

In these situations, the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the tenant has been deemed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the date set out in the Notice. Pursuant to section 55(2) I am issuing a formal order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

I find that the landlord is entitled to $1,125.00 for unpaid rent. Since the landlord has proven his case, he is also entitled to the recovery of the filing fee of $50.00. I grant the landlord an order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act for the amount due of $1,175.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant and a monetary order in the amount of $1,175.00.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
