DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR, MNR, MDSD & FF

Introduction

A hearing was conducted by conference call in the presence of the applicant and in the absence of the respondent although duly served. On the basis of the solemnly affirmed evidence presented at that hearing, a decision has been reached. All of the evidence was carefully considered.

I find that the Notice to End Tenancy was sufficiently served on the Tenant by posting on June 5, 2013. Further I find that the Application for Dispute Resolution/Notice of Hearing was personally served on the Tenant on June 15, 2013. With respect to each of the applicant's claims I find as follows:

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be decided are as follows:

- a. Whether the landlord is entitled to an Order for Possession?
- b. Whether the landlord is entitled to A Monetary Order and if so how much?
- c. Whether the landlord is entitled to retain all or a portion of the security deposit/pet deposit?
- d. Whether the landlord is entitled to an order for the cost of the filing fee?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on or about March 24, 2013. The rent is $500 per month payable on the first day of each month. The tenant paid a security deposit of $250 at the start of the tenancy. The tenant(s) failed to pay the rent for the months of May, June and July and the sum of $1500 remains owing. The tenant(s) have remained in the rental unit.

Analysis

Analysis - Order of Possession:

I determined the landlord was entitled to an Order for Possession. There is outstanding rent. The Tenant(s) have not made an application to set aside the Notice to End Tenancy and the time to do so has expired. In such situations the Residential Tenancy Act provides the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ends on the effective date of the notice, and must vacate the rental unit by that date. Accordingly, I granted the landlord an Order for Possession on 2 days notice.

The tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, the landlord may register the Order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia for enforcement.

Analysis - Monetary Order and Cost of Filing fee

I determined the tenant has failed to pay the rent for the month(s) of May, June and July and the sum of $1500 remains outstanding. I determined the landlord has given sufficient notice of their intention to claim for all of last month as provided in the Application for Dispute Resolution. I dismissed the claim for damage to the entry door and lock with liberty to re-apply as that claim is premature given the tenant is still in the rental unit and the landlord has not completed the work. I granted the landlord a monetary order in the sum of $1500 plus the sum of $50 in respect of the filing fee for a total of $1550.

Security Deposit

I determined the security deposit plus interest totals the sum of $250. I ordered the landlord may retain this sum thus reducing the amount outstanding under this monetary order to the sum of $1300.

It is further Ordered that this sum be paid forthwith. The applicant is given a formal Order in the above terms and the respondent must be served with a copy of this Order as soon as possible.

Should the respondent fail to comply with this Order, the Order may be filed in the Small Claims division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
