Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act, for an order of possession. The landlord also applied for a monetary order for unpaid rent and the filing fee and to retain the security deposit in partial satisfaction of his claim.

Both parties attended the hearing and were given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions. The parties acknowledged receipt of evidence submitted by the other and gave affirmed testimony.

Issues to be decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession? Does the tenant owe the landlord rent?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy started on June 01, 2007. On July 16, 2013, the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent. During the hearing, both parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their dispute.

Specifically, both parties agreed to the following:

- The tenant agreed to move out on or before 1:00 p.m. on September 30, 2013. The landlord agreed to allow the tenancy to continue until this date. An order of possession will be issued to the landlord effective this date.
- The tenant agreed that he owed the landlord $1,879.68. A monetary order will be issued to the landlord for this amount.
- Both parties stated that they understood and agreed that these particulars comprise the full and final settlement of all aspects of this dispute for both parties.

Pursuant to the above agreement and section 55(2) of the Residential Tenancy Act, I am issuing a formal order of possession effective September 30, 2013. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

Pursuant to the above agreement, I grant the landlord a monetary order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act for the amount of $1,879.68. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective on or before 1:00 p.m. on September 30, 2013 and a monetary order in the amount of $1,879.68.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
