A matter regarding RANDALL NORTH REAL ESTATE SERVICES and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter was conducted by way of a Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to Section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act in response to an application made by the landlord for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request which declares that on September 13, 2013 the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request in person. Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that the tenant has been served with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding requesting an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent?
Has the landlord established a monetary claim against the tenant for unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenant on January 14, 2013 for a tenancy commencing on February 1, 2011 for the monthly rent of $675.00 payable on or before the first day of each calendar month;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent or Utilities issued on August 23, 2013 with an effective vacancy date of September 2, 2013 due to $675.00 in unpaid rent due on August 1, 2013 (both pages of the 2 page form were provided as evidence);

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent or Utilities which states that the landlord served the notice to the tenant on August 23, 2013, by posting it to the door with a witness; and
- The Landlord's Application for Dispute Resolution which was made on September 13, 2013 claiming $675.00 of outstanding rent for August, 2013.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with the notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord, which is deemed to have been received by the tenant on September 5, 2013, being 3 days after posting the notice to the door of the rental unit.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to dispute the notice or pay the rent owed within the 5 days provided under Section 46(4) of the Act. Therefore, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under Section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice. I therefore find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent.

Conclusion

For the reasons set out above, I hereby grant an order of possession in favour of the landlord effective 2 days after service on the tenant. This order may then be filed and enforced in the Supreme Court as an order of that court.

I further grant a monetary order in the amount of $675.00 in favour of the landlord pursuant to Section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act. This order must be served on the tenant and may then be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an order of that court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
