DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC

Introduction

A hearing was conducted by conference call in the presence of both parties. On the basis of the solemnly affirmed evidence presented at that hearing, a decision has been reached. All of the evidence was carefully considered.

Both parties were given a full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions. Neither party requested an adjournment or a Summons to Testify. Prior to concluding the hearing both parties acknowledged they had presented all of the relevant evidence that they wished to present.

I find that the Notice to End Tenancy was personally served on the Tenant on October 31, 2013. Further I find that the Application for Dispute Resolution/Notice of Hearing was personally served on the landlord on November 8, 2013. With respect to each of the applicant's claims I find as follows:

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issue to be decided is whether the tenant is entitled to an order cancelling the one month Notice to End Tenancy dated October 31, 2013?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on February 15, 2012. The tenancy agreement provided that the tenant(s) would pay rent of $950 per month payable in advance on the first day of each month. The tenant(s) paid a security deposit of $475 at the start of the tenancy.

Settlement:

At the hearing the parties reached a settlement and they asked that I record the settlement pursuant to section 63(2) of the Residential Tenancy Act as follows:

- a. The parties mutually agree to end the tenancy on February 28, 2014.
- b. The parties request that the dispute resolution officer issue an Order for Possession for that date.

As a result of the settlement I issued an Order for Possession effective 1:00 p.m. on February 28, 2013. The tenants are obliged to pay the rent while residing in the rental unit.

The tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, the landlord may register the Order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia for enforcement.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
