A matter regarding SY FONG HOLDINGS LTD

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR MNR

Introduction

This hearing proceeded by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Act, and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the Landlord for an Order of Possession for unpaid rent and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent.

The Landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on February 7, 2014, the Landlord served the Tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail. Canada Post receipts were provided in the Landlord's evidence. Based on the written submissions of the Landlord, I find that the Tenant is deemed served with the Dispute Resolution Direct Request Proceeding documents on February 12, 2014, five days after they were mailed, in accordance with section 90 of the Act.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order pursuant to section 55 of the Residential Tenancy Act?

Background and Evidence

I have carefully reviewed the following evidentiary material submitted by the Landlord:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the Tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by all parties for a fixed term tenancy that began on October 1, 2011 and switched to a month to month tenancy after September 30, 2012, for the monthly rent of $1,500.00 due on 1st of the month;

- A notice of rent increase which indicates the rent was increased to $1,557.00 effective May 1, 2013;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent which was issued on, January 16, 2014, with an effective vacancy date listed as January 27, 2014, due to $1,557.00 in accumulated unpaid rent that was due on January 1, 2014; and
- A receipt dated January 27, 2014 for a payment of $500.00 that was received for use and occupancy only.

Documentary evidence filed by the Landlord indicates that the Tenant was served the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent on January 16, 2014 at 3:00 p.m. when it was posted to the Tenant's door at the rental unit in the presence of a witness.

Analysis

Order of Possession - I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the Tenant has been served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the Landlord. The notice is deemed received by the Tenant on January 19, 2014, three days after it was posted, and the effective date of the notice is January 29, 2014, pursuant to section 90 of the Act. I accept the evidence before me that the Tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the Tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice and I hereby grant the Landlord an Order of Possession.

Monetary Order – The evidence supports that the Tenant failed to pay the January 1, 2014 rent of $1,557.00 in violation of section 26 of the Act which provides that a tenant must pay rent when it is due under the tenancy agreement. The evidence further supports that a payment of $500.00 was received January 28, 2014, from the Tenant for use and occupancy, therefore the outstanding rent was reduced to $1,057.00 ($1,557.00 - $500.00). As per the aforementioned I approve the Landlord's request for a Monetary Order for $1,057.00.

Conclusion

I HEREBY FIND that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession effective two days after service on the Tenant. This Order is legally binding and must be served upon the Tenant.

The Landlord's decision will be accompanied by a Monetary Order for $1,057.00. This Order is legally binding and must be served upon the Tenant.

Any deposits currently held in trust by the Landlord are to be administered in accordance with Section 38 of the Residential Tenancy Act.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
