DECISION

Dispute Codes:

OPR, MNR, MNSD, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing was convened in response to an application by the landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for Orders as follows:

1. An Order of Possession - Section 55;
2. A Monetary Order for unpaid rent - Section 67;
3. An Order to retain the security deposit or pet deposit - Section 38
4. An Order to recover the filing fee for this application - Section 72.

I accept the landlord's evidence that despite the tenant having been personally served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing on January 15, 2014 in accordance with Section 89 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) the tenant did not participate in the conference call hearing. The landlord was given full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the notice to end tenancy valid?

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession?

Is the landlord entitled to the monetary amounts claimed?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on November 01, 2013. Rent in the amount of $800.00 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. At the outset of the tenancy, the landlord collected a security deposit from the tenant in the amount of $400.00. The tenant failed to pay rent in the month of January 2014 and on January 04, 2014 the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenant did not satisfy the rent for January 2014, however paid the landlord $800.00 on February 01, 2014. The landlord's monetary claim is for all the unpaid rent. The landlord has not experienced a loss of revenue for February 2014. The landlord also seeks an Order of Possession.

Analysis

Based on the testimony and document evidence before me I find that the tenant was served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent and I find the notice to be valid. The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and has not applied for Dispute Resolution to dispute the notice within the time prescribed by the Notice, and is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice. I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession.

I find that the landlord has established a monetary claim for unpaid rent. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee. The security deposit will be off-set.

Calculation for Monetary Order

Unpaid rent for January 2014	$800.00
Filing fee	50.00
Less security deposit	-400.00
Total monetary award	$450.00

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective 2 days from the day it is served on the tenant. The tenant must be served with this Order. Should the tenant fail to comply with the Order, the Order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I Order that the landlord retain the security deposit of $400.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an Order under Section 67 of the Act for the balance due of $450.00. If necessary, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This Decision is final and binding on both parties.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
