DECISION

Dispute Codes MND, MNR, MNSD, FF

This hearing was convened in response to an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) for Orders as follows:

1. A Monetary Order for unpaid rent - Section 67;
2. A Monetary Order for damage to the unit - Section 67;
3. An Order to retain the security deposit - Section 38; and
4. An Order to recover the filing fee for this application - Section 72.

The Tenant did not appear at the Hearing. The Landlord stated that the application for dispute resolution and the notice of hearing letter was served on the Tenant by registered mail to a postal box number that was on the tenancy agreement. The Landlord states that the Tenant did not provide a forwarding address and the Landlord did not check the postal tracking number for pick up by the Tenant.

The Act provides the following requirements for service of the Application

89 (1) An application for dispute resolution or a decision of the director to proceed with a review under Division 2 of Part 5, when required to be given to one party by another, must be given in one of the following ways:

- (a) by leaving a copy with the person;
- (b) if the person is a landlord, by leaving a copy with an agent of the landlord;

- (c) by sending a copy by registered mail to the address at which the person resides or, if the person is a landlord, to the address at which the person carries on business as a landlord;
- (d) if the person is a tenant, by sending a copy by registered mail to a forwarding address provided by the tenant;
- (e) as ordered by the director under section 71 (1) [director's orders: delivery and service of documents].

As the Landlord did not serve the application to a forwarding address provided by the Tenant and as a postal box number taken from the tenancy agreement is not evidence of a current residence, I find that the Landlord has not met the service requirements under the Act. I therefore dismiss the application with leave to reapply. Leave to re-apply is not an extension of any applicable limitation period.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
