DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, MNSD, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing was convened in response to an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) for Orders as follows:

1. An Order of Possession - Section 55;
2. A Monetary Order for unpaid rent - Section 67;
3. An Order to retain the security deposit - Section 38; and
4. An Order to recover the filing fee for this application - Section 72.

The Landlord and Tenant were each given full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the notice to end tenancy valid?

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession?

Is the Landlord entitled to the monetary amounts claimed?

Background and Evidence

The following are agreed facts: The tenancy began on November 1, 2013. Rent of $950.00 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. At the outset of the tenancy, the Landlord collected $475.00 as a security deposit from the Tenant. The Tenant owed arrears and failed to pay rent for April 2014. On April 2, 2014 the Landlord served the Tenant with a 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent (the “Notice”) by posting the Notice on the door. The Tenant has not made an application for dispute resolution and has not moved out of the unit. The Tenant paid some monies towards the arrears and the Landlord issued receipts for use and occupancy only. The Tenant was aware that the Landlord would not withdraw its application for an order of possession without full payment of rent. The Tenant owes $1,040.00 for rent including June 2014 rent. Landlord claims this amount and an order of possession effective 1:00 p.m. on June 30, 2014.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a 10 notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent (the "Notice") the tenant must, within five days, either pay the full amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an application for dispute resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If the tenant does neither of these two things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice. Section 55 of the Act provides that a landlord may request an order of possession of a rental unit by making an application for dispute resolution where a notice to end the tenancy has been given by the landlord, the tenant has not disputed the Notice by making an application for dispute resolution and the time for making that application has expired.

Based on the agreed facts I find that the Tenant was given a valid Notice has not filed an application to dispute the Notice and has not paid the outstanding rent. Given these facts, I find that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession effective 1:00 p.m. on June 30, 2014. I also find that the Landlord has established a monetary claim for $1,040.00 in unpaid rent. The Landlord is entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee for a total monetary amount of $1,090.00. Setting the security deposit of $475.00 plus zero interest off the entitlement leaves $615.00 owed by the Tenant to the Landlord.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession effective 1:00 p.m. on June 30, 2014 to the Landlord.

I order that the Landlord retain the deposit and interest of $475.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the Landlord an order under Section 67 of the Act for the balance due of $615.00. If necessary, this order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
