DECISION

Dispute Codes:

MNDC

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the tenant, filed on February 13, 2014, in which the applicant was requesting a monetary order against the landlord for loss of property and damages.

Only the applicant tenant appeared.

Preliminary Matter

The tenant testified that they had served the landlord with the Notice of hearing by registered mail. No proof of service was submitted into evidence and the tenant was not able to provide the parcel tracking number from Canada Post.

Section 89 of the Act states that an application for dispute resolution must be given to one party by another, in one of the following ways:

- (a) by leaving a copy with the person;
- (b) if the person is a landlord, by leaving a copy with an agent of the landlord;
- (c) by sending a copy by registered mail to the address at which the person resides or, if the person is a landlord, to the address at which the person carries on business as a landlord;

In this instance, I find that the applicant tenant was not able to provide sufficient evidence that would prove when and how the other party, who was not at the hearing, had been served.

Based on the above, I find that this matter cannot proceed because the tenant was not able to sufficiently prove that the landlord was properly served with the Notice of Hearing in accordance with the Act.

Therefore I dismiss the tenant's application with leave to reapply.

Conclusion

The tenant's application is dismissed with leave as this matter cannot proceed due to insufficient proof that the respondent was properly served in accordance with the Act.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
