DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of direct request proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an application for dispute resolution by the landlord for an order of possession for unpaid rent and a monetary order for unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed proof of service of the notice of direct request proceeding which declares that on June 16, 2014, the landlord served the tenant with the notice of direct request proceeding via registered mail.

Section 90 of the Act determines that a document served in this manner is deemed to have been served five days later.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that the tenant has been duly served with the direct request proceeding documents, as of June 21, 2014.

Preliminary and Procedural Matter

Although the landlord has applied for $196.21 in unpaid utilities, as per section 55(4) of the Act and Residential Tenancy Branch Policy Guideline #39 – Direct Requests, the Direct Request process does not provide for claims for unpaid utilities. Furthermore, in accordance with section 46(6) of the Act, the landlord failed to submit documentary evidence to support that the landlord provided the tenant with a written demand for $196.21 in unpaid utilities and that the utilities remained unpaid 30 days after providing the tenant with a written demand to pay them. Therefore, I dismiss the unpaid utilities portion of the landlord’s monetary claim with leave to reapply. The landlord is at liberty to make an application for unpaid utilities through the conventional participatory hearing process when claiming for unpaid utilities, and should not apply through the direct request process, unless the landlord submits evidence to support that the landlord complied with section 46(6) of the Act.

Issues to be Decided

- Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession for unpaid rent?
- Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the proof of service of the notice of direct proceeding for the tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the parties, indicating a monthly rent of $2,250.00 due on the 31st day of each month starting on January 31, 2014 (for example, February 2014 rent would be due on January 31, 2014); and
- A copy of a 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent which was issued on June 4, 2014, with a stated effective vacancy date of June 14, 2014, for $2,250.00 in unpaid rent.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the tenant had failed to pay the rent owed and was served the 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent by posting to the tenant's door on June 4, 2014, which was witnessed by third party "MEK". Section 90 of the Act deems the tenant was served three days later on June 7, 2014, which would correct the above-mentioned effective date to June 17, 2014.

The notice states that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for dispute resolution or the tenancy would end 10 days from the service date. The tenant did not apply to dispute the notice to end tenancy within five days from the date of service.

The landlord writes that the tenant failed to pay June 2014 rent in the amount of $2,250.00.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46(4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the notice, June 17, 2014. Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent.

Conclusion

I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two (2) days after service on the tenant and this order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that court.

I find that the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation pursuant to section 67 in the amount of $2,250.00 comprised of rent owed.

This order must be served on the tenant and may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an order of that court.

As described above, the landlord is at liberty to reapply for the unpaid utilities portion of the landlord's monetary claim as this portion of the landlord's application, as submitted, is not suitable for the direct request process.

This decision is final and binding on the parties, unless otherwise provided under the Act, and is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
