A matter regarding NPR LTD PARTNERSHIP and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of direct request proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an application for dispute resolution by the landlord for an order of possession for unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed proof of service of the notice of direct request proceeding which declares that on July 16, 2014, the landlord served the tenant with the notice of direct request proceeding via posting to the tenant’s door on July 16, 2014 at 4:00 p.m.

Section 90 of the Act determines that a documents served by posting to the door are deemed to have been served three days later. Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I accept that the tenant has been duly served with the direct request proceeding documents, as of July 19, 2014.

Issue to be Decided

- Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession for unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the proof of service of the notice of direct proceeding for the tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the parties on May 1, 2012, indicating a monthly rent of $1,350.00 which was due on the first day of the month; and

- A copy of a 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent which was issued on July 2, 2014, with a stated effective vacancy date of July 15, 2014, for $1,350.00 in unpaid rent due July 1, 2014.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the tenant had failed to pay the rent owed and was served the 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent by personally serving the tenant at the rental unit address on July 2, 2014 at 3:10 p.m. The tenant signed the proof of service document submitted in evidence, which was also witnessed by third party "MD".

The notice states that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for dispute resolution or the tenancy would end 10 days from the service date. The tenant did not apply to dispute the notice to end tenancy within five days from the date of service.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with the notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46(4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice, July 15, 2014. Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession for unpaid rent.

Conclusion

I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two (2) days after service on the tenant and this order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that court.

This decision is final and binding on the parties, unless otherwise provided under the Act, and is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
