Issue to be Decided

Does the landlord have grounds to end this tenancy?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began in April 2013. The monthly rent is $500.00.

The reasons for the notice were discussed at length. During the hearing the parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their dispute. Both parties agreed to the following terms:

2. The landlord agreed to allow the tenancy to continue until September 21, 2014.
3. The landlord will be issued an order of possession effective September 21, 2014.
4. The tenant's case worker agreed to visit the tenant on a weekly basis until the end of tenancy, to monitor the activities of the tenant
5. The landlord agreed to return prorated rent for the period of September 22 to September 30, 2014, to the tenant on September 21, 2014
6. Both parties stated that they understood and agreed that these particulars comprise the full and final settlement of all aspects of this dispute for both parties.

Conclusion

Pursuant to the above agreement, I grant the landlord an order of possession effective on or before 1:00pm on September 21, 2014. Should the tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.
