A matter regarding City of Vancouver and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and deals with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the Landlord for:

1. An Order of Possession – Section 55; and
2. A Monetary Order for unpaid rent – Section 67.

Given the Landlord's signed proof of service, I find that the Landlord served the Tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding in person on September 30, 2014 in accordance with the Act.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession?

Is the Landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

In the Application made September 29, 2014 the Landlord claims $782.21 for unpaid rent and provides the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement signed by the Parties indicating a tenancy start date of September 1, 2013 and a monthly rent of $375.00 due on the first day of the month;

- A copy of a 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent (the “Notice”) issued on July 30, 2014 with a stated effective vacancy date of August 13, 2014 for $782.21 in unpaid rent;
- A monetary worksheet that only indicates the amount of $782.21 being owed as of July 30, 2014. There is no indication how this amount was calculated however it is noted that the notice to end tenancy indicates that this amount is comprised of $32.21 for unpaid January rent, and $375.00 for unpaid rent for each of June and July; and
- A proof of service of the Notice showing that the Landlord served the Notice to the Tenant on July 30, 2014 by posting the Notice on the door.

The Tenant did not make an application to dispute the Notice.

Analysis

Section 55 of the Act provides that a landlord may request an order of possession of a rental unit by making an application for dispute resolution where a notice to end the tenancy has been given by the landlord, the tenant has not disputed the notice by making an application for dispute resolution and the time for making that application has expired. Section 46 of the Act provides that a tenant may, within 5 days after receiving a notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent, pay the overdue rent, in which case the notice has no effect, or dispute the notice by making an application for dispute resolution. If a tenant does not pay the rent or make an application to dispute the notice, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted the end of the tenancy and must vacate the unit by the effective date of the notice.

Based on the submissions of the Landlord, I find that the Notice was deemed received by the Tenant on August 2, 2014, 2014. I also find that the Tenant has failed to pay the rent and has not made an application to dispute the Notice. I find therefore that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent in the amount of $782.21. I encourage the Landlord in future direct request applications to ensure that the monetary worksheet is properly completed in order to avoid possible future dismissals for lack of required evidence showing how and when the amount being claimed has accrued.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the Landlord effective two days after service on the Tenant. Should the Tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

I grant the Landlord an order under Section 67 of the Act for the amount of $782.21. If necessary, this order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
