DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that at 6:55 p.m. on October 18, 2014, the landlord handed the tenant the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding. The landlord provided a copy of the Proof of Service document signed by the tenant attesting to his receipt of this Notice. Based on the written submissions of the landlord and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant has been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on October 18, 2014, as declared by the landlord.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenant on May 15, 2014, indicating a monthly rent of $1,100.00 due on the 1st day of the month for a tenancy commencing on May 15, 2014;

- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing as of October 14, 2014; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) handed to the tenant on October 5, 2014, with a stated effective vacancy date of October 15, 2014, for $1,100.00 in unpaid rent.

Documentary evidence signed by the tenant and filed by the landlord indicates that the tenant failed to pay all outstanding rent was served by handing the 10 Day Notice to the tenant at 4:30 p.m. on October 5, 2014. In accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, the tenant was served with this 10 Day Notice on October 5, 2014, as declared by the landlord.

The Notice states that the tenant had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice to End Tenancy within five days from the date of service.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been deemed served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the 10 Day Notice, October 15, 2014.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order of $1,100.00 for unpaid rent owing as of October 14, 2014.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of $1,100.00 for rent owed for October 2014. The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
