A matter regarding Amber Properties Ltd.
and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes: OPR, MNR

This matter proceeded by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Act, and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an order of possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent. The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on November 25, 2014, the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding was personally served on the tenant.

Issues to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession?

Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding;
- A copy of the residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and this particular tenant on September 25, 2014, indicating that the tenant is obligated to pay $750.00 in rent "not later than 2pm the last day of each month;
- A copy of the Notice of Rent Increase pursuant to which rent was increased by $21.00 to $771.00 effective May 01, 2014;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent issued on November 14, 2014, with a stated effective vacancy date of November 24, 2014, for $1,343.00 in unpaid rent effective October 31, 2014, and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice to End Tenancy showing that the notice to end tenancy was personally served on the tenant on November 14, 2014.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenant had 5 days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice to End Tenancy within 5 days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenant did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

I find that the tenant received the notice to end tenancy on November 14, 2014. I accept the landlord's evidence and I find that the tenant neither paid the rental arrears, nor applied to dispute the notice. The tenant is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice. I grant the landlord an order of possession which must be served on the tenant. Should the tenant fail to comply, the order may be filed for enforcement in the Supreme Court.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay a total of $1,343.00 in rent effective October 31, 2014. I find that the landlord is entitled to recover the rental arrears and I grant the landlord a monetary order in the amount of $1,343.00.

Conclusion

I hereby issue an order of possession in favour of the landlord effective not later than two (2) days after service on the tenant. This order must be served on the tenant. Should the tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I hereby issue a monetary order in favour of the landlord in the amount of $1,343.00. This order may be served on the tenant, filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
