DECISION

Dispute Codes: OPR, CNR, MNR, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with applications by the landlord and the tenant, pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act. The landlord applied for an order of possession and for a monetary order for unpaid rent and the filing fee. The tenant applied for an order to cancel the notice to end tenancy. Both parties attended the hearing and were given full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions.

Issues to be decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession or should the notice to end tenancy be set aside? Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent and the filing fee?

Background and Evidence

The landlord and tenant entered into a tenancy agreement on July 01, 2013. The tenant paid a security deposit of $390.00. The rent is $780.00 per month due on the first day of each month.

The tenant agreed that she had not paid rent for December 2014 and thereafter. On December 02, 2014 the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy for $780.00 in unpaid rent. The tenant disputed the notice but did not pay rent and continues to occupy the rental unit. At the time of the hearing the tenant agreed that she owed rent for December 2014 and January 2015. The tenant stated that Social Assistance had paid a portion on her behalf. The landlord agreed that he received $375.00 on December 15, 2014 and that the tenant owed a balance of $1,185.00.

The landlord agreed to allow the tenancy to continue until January 31, 2015.

Analysis

The tenant received the notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent, on December 02, 2014 and did not pay rent within five days of receiving the notice to end tenancy, pursuant to Section 46 to set aside the notice to end a residential tenancy, and the time to do so has expired.

In these situations, the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the tenant has been deemed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the date set out in the notice. Pursuant to section 55(2) I am issuing a formal order of possession effective on or before 1:00 pm on January 31, 2015. The order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

I also find that the landlord is entitled to $1,185.00 for unpaid rent and $50.00 for the filing fee for a total of $1,235.00. I grant the landlord an order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act for this amount. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective on or before 1:00 pm on January 31, 2014. I also grant the landlord a monetary order in the amount of $1,235.00.

The tenant's application is dismissed in its entirety.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
